

God Is Not A Liar: April 04, 2007

Hello brothers and sisters in the Lord. Thank you again for your encouraging e-mails and mentioning us in your prayers. A verse comes to mind by way of thanksgiving and encouragement to you all. "Therefore encourage one another and build up one another, just as you also are doing." (1 Thess 5:11) The writer of the Hebrews exhorts us to "encourage one another day after day, as long as it is still called 'Today,' lest any of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin." (Heb 3:13) It is so very important that we encourage the body of Christ to continue "in the faith firmly established and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel." (Col 1:23) One of the tactics of the enemy is to isolate us from fellowship with other God-fearing brothers and sisters and discourage us in our walk of faith. Let us strengthen one another that the limb which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed. (Heb 12:12) "Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep." (Rom 12:15) "Bear one another's burdens, and thereby fulfill the law of Christ." (Gal 6:2) "For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" (Gal 5:14) "Let the love of the brethren continue" (Heb 13:1) I pray brethren, "that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless until the day of Christ; having been filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God." (Phil 1:9-11) "Now may our God and Father Himself and Jesus our Lord direct our way to you; and may the Lord cause you to increase and abound in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you; so that He may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints." (1 Thess 3:11-12)

He Gives A Greater Grace by Randy

James 4:6; Micah 6:6-8; Luke 18:9-14; James 2:1-18

Description: God gives grace to the humble and resists the proud. He requires us to love righteousness, mercy and to walk humbly with Him. Let us therefore, not show partiality among ourselves, but rather speak and so act, as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty.

Building His Kingdom In You by Randy

Luke 19:20,21; 2 Samuel 7:8-17

Description: God wants to build His Kingdom in us; that His kingdom would come on earth as it is in heaven. He chooses the weak and the little ones to reveal Himself and His character through.

Writing:

God Is Not A Liar by Joey

While reading through the Acts of the Apostles I was faced with a reality that is not a reality in my life. When I see the boldness, authority and effectiveness of the Christians in the book of Acts, I had to be honest with myself and admit that they had something that I need. ...But; recognizing and acknowledging this and our need for more of Jesus is one thing, and believing that God will bring us to walk in the fullness of His Spirit and enter into His rest is another. ... While considering these things a word came to me fairly clearly, "God is not a liar." I later looked up some verses that speak of this and was encouraged by what I read. ...
