

The Root Supports You – May 08, 2008

Greetings,

I would like to share a Psalm that reminded me of the Lord's mercy and compassion towards me and His deliverances in my life.

"Out of the depths I have cried to You, O LORD. Lord, hear my voice! Let Your ears be attentive To the voice of my supplications. If You, LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You, That You may be feared. I wait for the LORD, my soul does wait, And in His word do I hope. My soul waits for the Lord More than the watchmen for the morning; Indeed, more than the watchmen for the morning. O Israel, hope in the LORD; For with the LORD there is lovingkindness, And with Him is abundant redemption. And He will redeem Israel From all his iniquities."
- (Psalm 130)

We serve a great God who hears the cry of the afflicted and delivers the soul of the needy. Oh, that we could abide in the place of hoping in and waiting for Him; realizing that we need His mercy and have no strength and righteousness of our own to stand on. The Lord's power is made perfect in weakness--when we are humble and contrite of spirit. The word says, Jesus gave Himself that He might "redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself a people for His own possession." (Titus 2:14) Let us hope in His word and place our trust in a faithful Creator, the Shepherd and Guardian of our souls. (1 Peter 4:19; 2:25)

Amen.

Romans 9:26-11:36

Description: Those who believe God's word will have their faith outworking in obedience to His will. We need to remain humble and continue in His kindness that we may overcome and remain in the olive tree.
