

I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great assembly. (Psa 40:10)

And at once he rose up before them, and took up what he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God. And they were all seized with astonishment and began glorifying God; and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen remarkable things today." (Lk 5:25-26)

And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. ... And fear gripped them all, and they began glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited His people!" (Lk 7:15-16)

He [Jesus] sent him [the man from whom the demons had departed] away, saying, "Return to your house and describe what great things God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him. (Lk 8:38-39)

And He laid His hands upon her; and immediately she was made erect again, and began glorifying God. ... And the entire multitude was rejoicing over all the glorious things being done by Him. (Lk 13:13, 17)

Now one of them [one of the ten lepers], when he saw that he had been healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice, and fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. (Lk 17:15-16)

And immediately he regained his sight, and began following Him, glorifying God; and when all the people saw it, they gave praise to God. (Lk 18:43)

Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, saying:

" 'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!
Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!' (Lk 19:37-38)
