

Treasure

We must seek You Father
For You are our Reward
You are the soul Treasure
You are the risen Lord

Do not store earthly treasure
Where thieves break in and steal
But lay them up in heaven
Where the Tree of Life's revealed

CHORUS:

Where our treasure lay
There our heart will be found
Where our heart is found reveals if we will enter the Gate to Life

The path to You is narrow
But broad the path to sin
Many will think they've found You
But few will enter in

We cannot serve two masters
For one hate will fill our eyes
To one we will be faithful
The other we will despise
