

You hold the universe in Your hands
Help me to trust You have great plans
More than I could ask or imagine
Thoughts towards me that I cannot fathom

When I commit my ways to You
And put You first in all I do
You grant me the desires of my heart
And fulfill every promise You spoke from the start

Thank You for Your love for me
“Your will and not my own,” is my plea
Through Your mercies I offer my life
For You first made the greatest sacrifice
