

Have You Not Known

Isaiah 40:28-31

Have you not known? Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, Creator of the earth
He never faints, nor grows weary
He gives power to the weak

Though the youths shall faint
And young men shall fall
Those who wait on You
Shall renew their strength

Chorus:

They shall mount on wings like eagles
They shall run and not grow weary
Those who have no might, He gives strength
They shall walk and not faint
