

All Things New

(Rev 21:5-7; Ezekiel 36:26-27)

I was a blind man, here without hope in the world
With empty ambitions, then You spoke Your word
I was dead but You gave me new life
I was so dark but You filled me with light

Chorus:

Lord You make all things new
And these words are faithful and true
My heart was a stone but You made it new flesh
You took these dry bones and You gave me Your breath
Lord You make all things new

The presence of Jesus, now is dwelling within You're the fountain of life, I'll never thirst again
You disarmed all my foes and You said it is done
The old things are gone and the new has begun

Bridge:

You're the Alpha, the Omega, the beginning and the end
Come all who are thirsty, and never thirst again
The one who overcomes, they shall be called Your son
You're the Alpha, the Omega, You're my inheritance
