

Lord, You are Faithful and True
I have nothing without You

You said You wouldn't give me more than I can bear
Yet, there seems to be difficulties everywhere

At times I have fears without and fears within
Then You remind me that, "Faith still stops the wind"

In my life's every storm and every gale
You show me You are there and You do care

Thank You that You give grace to the broken and humble ones
In Your unfailing love You have sent Your beloved Son

There is a throne room that I can come to and find mercy and strength in time of need
It is only in Your presence that I find I have peace and joy eternally
