

Trust in Him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us. (Psa 62:8)

In order that ... we may have strong encouragement (comfort), we who have fled for refuge in laying hold of the hope set before us. (Heb 6:18)

This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil. (Heb 6:19)

Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me, for my soul takes refuge in You; and in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge, until destruction passes by. (Psa 57:1)

For Thou hast been a refuge for me, a tower of strength against the enemy. (Psa 61:3)

The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous runs into it and are safe (set on high). (Prov 18:10)
The righteous will live by his faith. (Hab 2:4)

From the end of the earth I call to Thee, when my heart is faint; lead me to the rock that is higher than I. (Psa 61:2)

He sets on high those who are lowly, and those who mourn are lifted to safety. (Job 5:11)

Thou, O LORD, art a shield about me, My glory, and the One who lifts my head. (Psa 3:3)

Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. (Heb 4:16)

Therefore He is able to save to the uttermost (completely, perfectly, utterly) those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them. (Heb 7:25)

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. (Phil 4:6)

And the peace which surpasses all comprehension (understanding), shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (Phil 4:7)

In peace I will both lie down and sleep, for You alone, O LORD, make me to dwell in safety. (Psa 4:8)

The Shepherd and Guardian of your souls. (1 Pet 2:25)

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Psa 46:1)
