

That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. (Phil 3:10-11)

He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His stripes you were healed. (1 Pet 2:24)

Who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds. (Tit 2:14)

By this will, we have been sanctified through the offering (sacrifice) of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. (Heb 10:10)

For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (Heb 10:14)

To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood. (Rev 1:5b)

Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. (Rom 5:9)

For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. (Rom 5:10)

For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall be also in the likeness of His resurrection. (Rom 6:5)
