

In the fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, and His children will have a place of refuge. (Pro 14:26)

“Is not your fear of God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?” (Job 4:6)

For our proud confidence is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you. (2 Cor 1:12)

Such confidence we have through Christ towards God. Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God. (2 Cor 3:4-5)

And the work of righteousness will be peace, and the service of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. (Isa 32:17)

Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God. (1 Jn 3:21)

For we are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh. (Phil 3:3)

For the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught. (Pro 3:26)

For You are my hope; O Lord God, You are my confidence from my youth. (Psa 71:5)

This is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. ...and we know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him. (1 Jn 5:14-15b)

Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (Heb 4:16)

Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his confidence, and does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. (Psa 40:4)

Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD and whose confidence is the LORD. (Jer 17:7)

Now as they observed the confidence of Peter and John and understood that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed, and began to recognize them as having been with Jesus. (Act 4:13)
