

I thank my God always ... awaiting eagerly the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will also confirm (strengthen, preserve, steadfastly set) you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful. (1 Cor 1:4a,7b-9a)

I urge you in the sight of God who gives life to all things ... that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing. (1 Tim 6:13-14)

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age, look for the blessing hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus. (Tit 2:12)

Therefore, gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (1 Pet 1:13)

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all ... Now to Him who is able to establish you. (Rom 16:24-25a)

Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord ... who has saved us and called us with a holy calling ... according to His own grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity. (2 Tim 1:8a, 9)

No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, that you may be able to endure it. (1 Cor 10:13)

Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. (Rom 8:38)

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. (Phil 4:13)

Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy. (Jude 24)

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law; but thanks be to our God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable ... (1 Cor 15:56-58a)
